Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, May 19, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Time is passing, and our Mission is asserting itself, finding its place little by little in this troubled world where many hearts feel the appeal of the Divine, without truly identifying it. A malaise is taking place; it will grow as long as men neglect what is essential in their life, not only in this world, but also beyond.

"Appearances, superficiality, cannot satisfy these beings indefinitely, on pain of becoming helpless in the face of ordeals which nobody can avoid. Spiritual life opens a desirable way on another dimension of consciousness where true values reclaim their place.

"Humanity cannot continue for long to pursue this way of absurdity in which it is getting stuck and which highlights all possible baseness.

"A big page will have to be turned and then other values will emerge, without which man cannot find a possible balance between materiality and spirituality. To some extent, this world is in perdition. It will have to find another status, on pain of definitively disappearing.

"Our remarks are fully justified. This cry of alarm is not given in vain, so we hope. Will it find a favourable response? We are not the only ones acting in this direction. Trying to escape, to deny reality, does not solve problems. Placed in front of his own conscience, man will have to react to avoid the irrevocable.

"Our action is carried out to this end. May spirituality influence this movement in the right direction and manage to guide humanity towards its higher destiny."
