Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Friday & Saturday, May 20 & 21, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

To doubt one's competence is only human, my child; the opposite would be surprising, particularly with regard to this work. An approach to things that cannot be measured, or assessed according to human criteria, cannot be grasped by a rational mind like yours.

"Over time, you pass stages in terms of going deeper into vibratory levels to which one must become accustomed. Only your health curbs an expansion of your capabilities regarding this 'correspondence' with a higher entity, whose name will not be mentioned here.

"Everything in its own time. Please remain confident. We are asking you. Consider each day as an opportunity to serve, in spite of the burden slowing down your pace. Keep your eyes focused on the goal, which your soul yearns for intensely; thus will the burden of your life be alleviated. Think of your Master and of his difficult path, where he is subjected to a lot of pressure with which he must cope.

"Living and struggling are inseparable. So has it always been since the beginning of time. Therefore, one should put up with this as well as possible. Your mystical life is enlightening; you are advancing on a way ignored by many of your fellow creatures. Therefore, do not lose heart. Be more and more united with the divine heart of your Master; it defies time and space, and your role by his side is important.

"Be trustful in your future. Everything will not end with this life; you know this. You will leave a beautiful wealth of messages, many of which are already touching the hearts of your brothers and sisters.

"Be blessed, as well as those who are working with you and who support you in the service of this noble cause."
