Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, May 22, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Humility: this is the key and you have understood this for a long time, my child. Without it, there is no greatness; your Master sets a touching example, giving it its true dimension. Nothing durable can be built without this essential aspect. Therefore, our way will also set an example for those who will perpetuate our original teaching without adding any trait of their own personality, for that has nothing to do with this teaching.

"Masters elected as our successors will have as a mission to preserve its very essence which more than suffices for its efficacy. These messages will be the quintessence of it for those many hearts that are sufficiently refined and capable of detecting in them an emanation of the Divine – one that is beyond this form of expression not yet recognised by all in this world. Those many hearts are also expected to be capable of respecting the original spirit while working for the future. That future will be characterised by respect for the truth and elimination of the trends of the day, as these will no longer have a place in a purified environment which focuses on what is essential, and where existential questions will be brought back to essentials.

"Our way will be vigilant on its remit and beware of prevailing currents of thought, inherent in a troubled period where humans vainly seek in sophisticated formulas that which exists in themselves: the reality of a divine presence, hidden for too long.

"There is the challenge: to have the humility to rely on the divine presence, in everything, and to seek it intensely, releasing one's mind from its fantasies and bringing it back to a very simple and constructive view of their spiritual reality."
