Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, July 12, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

The channel is open. You hold the key, my child. Love is the key, in all its expressions. May your heart sing it in every way possible! It is the only worthwhile remedy; it sweeps away your fears and doubts and makes you stronger and more lucid when listening to us.

"May all our brothers understand where the secret lies! It does not lie in speeches or in complicated formulas, pleasing people versed in rhetoric and carried away by hollow sentences. Only the simplicity of the heart, innate or recovered after many wanderings, can meet the profound aspirations of the being, in terms of its eternal aspects.

"A journey on Earth is short; it is an opportunity given to man to grow and find his true way, that which connects him to the Creator of all things. He seeks far away from himself what is within, preserved and immutable since it is of divine essence. Carrying a treasure without knowing it, he is sometimes dazed by unhealthy pleasures and neglects the main thing. The way is long; it can be painful, depending on the obstacles to be surmounted to reach the goal.

"Our speech is repetitive and simple, like any substantial food necessary for life. To revert to the essentials, to simplicity – this is what our speech is meant for. Words have their own vibration; they are carriers in spite of their insignificant appearance, and many readers will feel this. These writings carry life; it is up to each one to discover this and to benefit from it. Blessings to all."
