Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, July 16, 2005 – 3:00 p.m.

You may thank your dear brown-headed children for their commitment to our cause and for their loyalty and perseverance in the effort.

"May they, throughout their lives, remain the 'champions' of divine love, of its light and its supremacy in the world of darkness.

"We bless them, especially on this day when your soul rejoices and you associate them with this sublime exaltation."
