Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, July 20, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Rise above the turbulences. Every day you must make this effort to leave behind your usual worries. Our contact is a solace to your heart; it literally melts under the effects of the grace that opens the channels connecting it to ours. All is calming down in you on these blessed shores where noble souls come to drink. Humans need this speech; many are subjected to suffering and seek distractions to overcome it.

"They are like big children that need to be reassured. Whether they are conscious of it or not, all keep in them a deep-rooted fear that came down through the ages. Being far away from their true homeland, they feel an emptiness; sooner or later the need will be felt to fill it. To find one's way is a blessing, and we are delighted when this way is ours. To win hearts is a rare privilege, one that is given to our way in these troubled times to advance in this conquest, in the service of the divine powers.

"Divested of useless aspects, our way proposes in its simplicity a means of rising, without wasting time taking circuitous routes. Aspiration for the Divine is growing in this world; whether it is expressed or not, its action is applied in the hearts, awaiting the opportunity for a true encounter.

"We must let things take their course and let this Power act. It operates at its own pace and prepares the ground for an abundant and fruitful harvest. Let us continue in this direction in the service of all."
