Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, July 26, 2005 – 11:30 a.m.

My child, don't try to hold back all the love your Master inspires in you. Let it express itself; conquer your heart more and more, without repressing it as you have done until now. Loving one's Master, isn't it the most beautiful way? Having reached this point of no return, the soul can sail, immortal and sure of its course. It is in the permanent attention your heart devotes to his that he can answer you in the same way; this is how the divine laws are made.

"This permanent movement of energies builds indestructible bonds on all levels of consciousness. Nothing can be lost in this redeeming vortex leading souls to the highest degree of subtlety, in terms of realisation. Look at the long distance you have already come and be thankful for all the graces received, which enable you to achieve the work for which you came to this Earth. Each one has one's work. Your personal inclinations, and especially your propensity to love, allowed it. Without this propensity, nothing could be like this and these messages would not be characterised by a special vibration, as is the case now.

"Love attracts love; we cannot remain insensitive to such manifestations, so spontaneous and especially so completely selfless. An exchange of this kind creates a unique relationship which these writings give an insight into. My child, devote yourself to love: this is your vocation. Is there any nobler vocation? It is up to each one to assess it and to benefit from it – according to one's conception of love – when this love is divinely inspired.

"Be blessed and strengthened."
