Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 4, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

No path, however good it may be, can suit everyone.
The soul, during its evolution, follows many meanders before finding what suits it.

You are all privileged; having come sufficiently far in other lives, the opportunity is given to you to arrive where necessary and be able to make the decisive step.

When the fruit is ripe, it must be picked and exposed. Looking at it, one sees how much the beneficial rays of the sun have made it the most perfect fruit of its kind.

By taking the right approach, you too are exposed to the purifying rays of love that bring you to the ultimate ripening of the soul, so its beauty can radiate and attract other searching souls.

Those who are thirsty for the Divine feel this powerful attraction.

Love has the same effects as the sun on nature; it is the food, the life of the soul.

Without it, the soul vegetates and doesn't find its oxygen. It suffers and withers.

The right channel presents itself to the soul, and there it is, opening up, exalting, at last it can live.

The aspiration that was within finds its fulfilment and manifests through the effects felt at the level of the heart.

The way is open, luminous, intangible.

With time all is possible.

This is how it is.
