Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, August 30, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Your contacts with the spiritual entity of my son are deepening in the desired direction. The connection is established easily, and it testifies to what is feasible between two human beings both immersed in matter and yet capable of surpassing its constraining limits. This fact is not yet common, but it is true that man of the future will be more capable of communicating like this with the world of the Spirit. His spiritual life will develop, transforming the nature of these vibrations; it will more easily put him in tune with the planes of other levels. All must change in this world; what is an aberration must disappear to allow the emergence of the expression of an intense divine life that will transform everything.

"The spirit will be different. Human nature will also be different, as far as its current structures are concerned, which will place beings in another context that is more suitable for their evolution. The unbearable violence raging on Earth is only escalating. It will give way in the new era to a mentality more respectful of divine laws. Violence in all its forms generates a disastrous vibratory climate driving humanity into horror, irreversibly so.

"The penalty will be without appeal. That is the way it goes; nothing can be avoided in what is considered necessary for the regeneration of this world in distress."
