Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, September 3, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

The song of your souls joined together reaches us and delights us; it is a change from the ceaseless complaints emanating from humans. They are partly justified; humanity is suffering. Its status must change, but what is it doing to rise up and become detached from the influence of a material world completely enslaving it?

"Noble souls are moving in this troubled world; they are affected more than they would like by the misdeeds of a distracted civilisation. The wise man manages to isolate himself, to progress towards the beautiful and great aspects he feels intensely inside. The call of the Divine is irresistible. It can make itself be heard and transform a heart ready to follow the law, that which has not changed since the dawn of time.

"We propose to our aspirants a simple method befitting today's life. Many are experiencing it successfully. They pass through stages bringing them closer to the goal, they open up to the transcendence of the Spirit, and without even realising it, their way takes on a different direction. To see hearts changing and emerging towards the light is our reward.

"To continue relentlessly is part of the ceaseless movement of life, that which drives us to action whatever our level on the cosmic ladder. The notion of rest and end does not exist. Divine splendour cannot wane. It is eternal; it gives rise to life in its perpetual movement, which all things and all people should bow to."
