Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, September 6, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Calm down, relax, and let the serenity you are longing for emerge in your heart; it will put a barrier between aggressive noises and peace that is recovered thanks to this contact. Plunge within yourself, my child. Forget this world for a moment; it gives a difficult time to today's human beings, because of its many harmful effects. They must find a diversion to rejuvenate themselves and not lose contact with that part of themselves that is in phase with a higher reality. To remain grappling with the current life and to diligently follow a spiritual way testifies to some wisdom and strength which many beings do not have in the face of all sorts of disturbances prevailing here below.

"Today's humans lack the reference points that guided their ancestors who were used to more stability in all areas of life. Thus are these troubled times heralding changes on this planet, as we have already alluded to so many times before. You see that with some effort you manage to regain the quietude necessary for our contact. Let your heart enjoy it and open up without fear to the vibrations of peace that infuse it within. How many brothers and sisters must make this effort each day, to find us in a more serene space. They belong to the privileged ones, all those on Earth who are following a way – one which they chose according to their deeper aspiration to rise.

"May the time soon come when all will have the refuge of faith and enough open-mindedness to place them above materiality, in an era of peace and love among men of all races and faiths."
