Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 5, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

When you all remain united with us through the heart, there is no waste of time. If, in the face of an emergency, you are prevented from doing your practice at the set time, don't feel guilty, you will catch up.

A.M. will change course. This teamwork has compelled some of you to reflect on various aspects of human behaviour, in particular among abhyasis.

She must leave this work to others, she has gone beyond that. It has not been useless insofar as she committed to it wholeheartedly.

Now, she must devote herself to highlighting the innumerable resources of Sahaj Marg, the transformations it can bring about in the human being – when it is considered in all its reality and depth.

The best remedy can be effective only if it is taken in a timely and fitting manner.

This method is often misused by some, it's a bit like a gimmick.

If you really wanted to become aware of the possibilities it offers you, you would all be amazed.

Easterners, much more interiorized than you, know better how to derive the quintessence from it. They unite with the inner Master in all circumstances. They need neither a confessor, nor a psychoanalyst, the usefulness of this profession by no means being called into question here.

We wish only to draw your attention to the fact that by practising seriously, and not in an intellectual and ritualistic way, these beings can find in themselves answers and peace, in moments when they are despairing.
