Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, September 13, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Your heart, for a long time, has been offered to us with great generosity; thus it has become this privileged space capable of receiving our remarks. Without this love story, what would have happened? Only a subtle energy like this can sustain such strong bonds. Will the reading of these messages bring the anticipated benefits to our aspirants? There is no doubt about this. They have started their long public life and they will give matter for discussions and especially for thought. This is what we expect from our brothers and sisters who are sufficiently committed to their spiritual process.

"To learn how to interiorise oneself: this is what they must work on. It is within them that the key of the mystery lies; they should not forget it. Today's man prefers to flee; to leave is their slogan. Their permanent dissatisfaction leads them to excesses, they seek outside what is within them, but they do not know it. Making them aware of this reality is part of our objective; we are not the first ones to have this objective and we will not be the last.

"The seeker is often lost on paths, guided by a teeming intellect, which our abhyasis must be wary of. The great philosophical and psychological essays are of no great help in our way; actually, they have no place in it. Time is pressing. Being focused on the essentials, our way must continue its work in the initial spirit, without departing from it. To bring our brothers and sisters to a meeting point with Unity, that is the objective to be reached. It entails simplicity and interiorisation; that is the secret."
