Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, September 17, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Come drink from the source, my child, where your torments are appeased. Widen your vision of the Divine; let it prevail over all, in the most varied circumstances of life and the most unexpected ones. Adorn yourself with its jewels, its strength and a grace capable of touching hearts. Transcend any ugliness and keep praising God and your Master, His representative on Earth. He alone can connect you as directly as possible to the emanation of His power and endless blessings. You have this resource, and many of our brothers and sisters do too. So is created a current of energy, specific to our way.

"All these pure hearts, offered to the divine life in its subtler aspects, represent a force which all can benefit from. May this union be strengthened and constitute in this world an unassailable refuge in the face of violence and disrespect for the divine laws. Our Mission is growing. Many hearts, without yet being aware, are being called and they will be its future lifeblood. Our way generates positive energies, in a specific vibratory space, conducive to everyone's spiritual development. May it keep expanding and bringing to attentive seekers what they need.

"Love attracts love; it is the playground of the Divine. So many hearts call upon it, without even realising it. They are lost in the labyrinth of a disorientated world, neglecting their states of soul, those which drive them towards good. What will need to occur on Earth for the greatest number to realise how much their existence here below is artificial in the face of divine reality. May all hearts be touched by grace!"
