Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, September 20, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

We understand your lassitude; many people would have given up a long time ago if they were in your place. Only the ardent fire that burns in you makes you expect with perseverance this moment every day, putting you in phase with the vibration of our hearts. A space of purity and love awaits your heart; its impatience is such that it would not miss this rendezvous that is so special for anything in the world.

"Many of our brothers, who are without your gifts, come to rejuvenate themselves in the heart of silence, and they commune every day with the inner Master, in a true climate of love. Each one has their own references and find within themselves what corresponds to them. It is there that the best is built, and where the subtle being starts expanding towards the level it can reach. Following a spiritual way is synonymous with progressing in this ascent towards the Immutable Peace where the soul finds its true identity!

"Their wanderings on the path to the goal are so long that the seeker's chief objective is to not lose any more time, since they have decided once and for all to devote themselves to the quest for the Divine. When they have reached this level of lucidity, everything seems simple to them – they know where they must go and their efforts will no longer remain futile. The inner call becomes pressing, as it was never before. This moment in the ascent towards the Divine is most striking. They feel carried away onto the shores of bliss, in an ecstatic and fascinating movement.

May all our brothers persevere and attain this moment of intense communion where all the rest is abolished."
