Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Whatever your human limits, my child, you are motivated by the best feelings. Your life is played on all the harmonics that are proposed to it; that's how one's personality is moulded. Any good that emerges must prevail and be improved in a deeper and deeper context of self-control.

"Events that take place throughout one's incarnation are conducive to a soul's elevation. There is no good or bad [event]. According to the interpretation made of it, in all circumstances there is an opportunity for beings to assert themselves in the best way they can. This process takes a long time; one's life, until the end, offers decisive choices in this respect. Until its end, it keeps in store opportunities of this kind. Each day, each moment, has its own importance; life is not given in vain. This notion must remain ever-present in everyone's mind.

"All that lives, struggles and suffers. All must take into account this reality and respect what surrounds them. Man is not the only one to endure the blows dealt by fate, but who really cares? Compassion can be expressed by respecting the whole of creation. Man's heart, united with the Creator, must remain in symbiosis with Him; it is in the nature of things. Such an attitude fosters an elevated sense of awareness; it puts one in phase with the secrets of life, in all its expression. Happy are wise people who perform every day this kind of ritual in a hymn to life, to the divine power, in full harmony with its manifestation. May all our brothers feel concerned about these remarks and act accordingly, with our blessings."
