Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, January 30, 2006 – 10:00 a.m.

My child, make the most of these days that are so special; they illuminate your inner space. Your heart is stirred by this special energy, alluded to yesterday in connection with the eve of the seminar related to the birth anniversary of the Father of our Mission, the most Revered Lalaji. These days create subtle bonds throughout a year; they are points of reference in the life of a way like ours. They contribute to writing its history, that which is recorded on the register of time, and influences the heart of our aspirants.

"Our blessed son ensures the cohesion of our Mission, developing day after day, to foster its future expansion which one can hardly conceive of today. Nothing should be neglected in this respect; everything is important, at both the material and the spiritual levels. Everything must serve its development in the broadest sense of the word. We insist on this aspect of things, but facts dictate. These decades of Sahaj Marg have changed many hearts; they form a large family, and this is a significant milestone for times to come. Energies of the three Masters together give to our way a body, a soul and a whole, working for the good of humanity and beyond – no limit is set in this area. The memory of each one of them must be honoured and preserved equally. These days of remembrance – we do insist on this aspect – must be given a prime position in the year, among the significant events of our Mission. May all our brothers and sisters, in union of heart, be really aware of their spiritual progress and spare a little time to remember and make use of this very precious capital. This is for them to use according to their own aspiration to progress and to blossom under the divine lights. May all receive according to their aspiration. Special blessings to all!"
