Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, March 27, 2006 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium:"Babuji, celestial heart, mine is calling you with fervour. It feels lonely in this world where everybody is caught up in the swirl of life. It carries those who I love away from me."

Aren't we there, attentive towards you? Please don't forget it. Feed on the graces received. Your position is enviable; do not lose heart. Be blessed"
