Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, October 16, 2006 – 10:00 a.m.

To you, my son,

"Your heart is shining brightly. It delights mine beyond expression. Your mission on Earth is not finished, yet it – this heart that is so special among the multitude of men populating the Earth – has managed to conquer this difficult and inaccessible summit.

"Your soul vibrates; it delights all of us here, with respect to this very praiseworthy attainment. You are giving your best, guided by the power of an extraordinary love towards the alliance of our joint hearts, which unanimously approves of you and thus illustrates the force of destiny that led you towards us.

"At this stage, there is total fusion, which makes your action in the world of matter more difficult. Being confronted each day with the grossness of this world, this total fusion is all the more praiseworthy. You must see it through and we help you as much as possible. Go to what is essential. Spare yourself; we are by your side, my dear son. The day of your liberation will be your most beautiful one; you will leave a finished work on Earth, as far as you are concerned. You will then continue it here in a different way, until its grandest achievement – as we all see to it.

"Time passes and it is eventful. At every moment, there are many events in the Mission. Each of these actions builds it, wherever it may take place on Earth and however insignificant it may seem. Thus the fabric is woven that fosters its expansion on the vibratory level and that is capable of leading it, one day, to its apogee.

"We love you, my very dear son. May this love galvanise your strength and make your heart happy in the present time, as much as mine is happy to tell you this."

Babuji
