Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, February 7, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

All these lines, written under our inspiration, has set your heart ablaze with a special energy that each time gives you the strength to continue. Nothing is vain in these repetitive but necessary remarks. They don't provide any sensational revelations, as some people would like; their appeal lies elsewhere on another level, and sensitive beings feel it extremely well. The impalpable cannot be explained; one has to experience it in one's depths. A heart open to the transcendence of the Spirit holds a treasure that is unequalled in this illusory world."

Babuji

"Your heart is a door to the Infinite; pass through it as many times as possible, by the grace of our Divine guide. This world is limited; how can we be satisfied with it when the Inexpressible is awaiting us? Our brothers and sisters, by sufficiently interiorising, feel what cannot emerge from a surface reading. Intellect does not prevail here; it fades, advantageously, in favour of an entirely spiritual approach. The heart has its reasons, which often go beyond man's desires; in such circumstances, the soul alone imposes its law according to one's aspiration to be united with the Divine.

"Let us be carried once again to these shores like no other where the divine power always manifests itself in one of its many aspects, and let us give thanks, infinitely."

The Medium: "O my Master, You are the celestial magician who enthrals my heart, how can one not answer this exciting invitation! Therefore, my soul, let yourself be carried away. You can follow your Master; he is Great and his powers surpass what is conceivable on Earth. Be confident and surrendered, according to his wishes."

"You are now a perfect aspirant, a convinced disciple, my dear daughter. Your heart in his wake keeps opening to the celestial beauty. Enjoy these unique moments; they transport not only you to the shores of the Sacred, but through these writings, our readers who are receptive to these comments will also benefit from them. Be blessed, as well as all those who are following us on the path."
