Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, February 8, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

A surrendered heart cannot be completely ignored, and if, in addition, it is eager to progress, it attracts forces that have the capacity to do so. A long journey can then begin and write a beautiful page in the history of a life. The living Master has all the power to drive this and embellish it as he pleases, according to divine principles.

"Thus did your story start, my child, and unfold into this saga of messages, a quite unusual one in this century where many human beings lack broadmindedness on these phenomena. It does not matter. This is how it was decided. Our way marks a step in this direction, and this is just the beginning.

"Rest assured that all is well. Continue on your way in peace."

"Dear sister, a time of pause and reflection was necessary to better appreciate what these messages provide and the questions they can raise. They produce a lot of positive results; this is encouraging. The way is henceforth open, revealing perspectives whose effects we cannot, ourselves, assess. Let us remain trustful as we are encouraged by our Divine guide and as He so rightly says: 'All has its raison d'être; what must be, will be.' Let us follow his luminous star; it glorifies our lives and provides them with a dimension whose scope we cannot imagine. Let us drink from the celestial cup; it delights our hearts beyond expression, and as our Beloved told you so well: 'Be serene and surrendered to the divine providence.'"

The Medium: "Satisfying you is my greatest joy in this world, and your comments concerning the messages are precious to my heart. May they help all those who are struggling and suffering on the path, and who find within a spiritual way like ours, a Master, a reason to hope for a better world, while following a true spiritual way. Thank you for all – you, my Beloved Babuji, and you, my Master."
