Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, February 15, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Hearts subjugated by yours, by their greatness and their intense vibrations – this is his meaning of love, in its purest form. These comments are meant to better emphasise this, while listening attentively to you."

These writings, in a world that is so hard and often merciless, will lead our readers into a universe where ugliness is abolished. Being divinely inspired, they will work their way into hearts that are ready to receive them. Your heart that is exemplarily available became the receptacle chosen to convey this form of teaching. Human beings will need them more and more, in the face of what the future has in store for them. Resorting to faith – one that is tinged with hope for a better world – ennobles a soul that is willing to take refuge in it. Thus writes the most beautiful stories to the glory of the Divine Power."

Babuji

"This chorus of three voices has not said its last word; it does not lack inspiration. Faith sustained by divine love knows no limit – let us express this to its fullest extent and with unlimited fervour. Let us be transported once more to the shores of the sacred.

"You once said, 'I do not live in India, but India lives in me.' Therefore think that our hearts live in you, that they make you stronger against adversity so that you can complete your mission. Let us love Him – Him, our Beloved Babuji Maharaj – beyond expression and with increased faith. May our united voices be heard for a long time in this world, and elsewhere, in eternal praise; such is our wish. Let our hearts be set ablaze under the burning glow of His heart."
