Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, February 20, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

Our hearts are jubilant; they love infinitely. Our divine guide has shown us the way, and by divine grace, our hearts, in his wake, met each other.'

The Medium: "My Master, could they experience or live anything better than this odyssey that transports them from one world to another!

"My Beloved and you are in my heart, seemingly a flowing spring, refreshing and pure, inspiring an extraordinary love."

"This kind of love is a precious treasure, unparalleled in this world; let us praise God for that."

"These comments delight us all here, who are listening to you and relishing this song. It is not very frequent in the world of humans and makes us hope for more glorious times.

"Communicating is as simple as that, you see. It is simply letting one's heart speak, in all sincerity...!"

Babuji

"Our Divine guide could not say it better, but we owe him this apparent ease; we owe it to Him and certainly not to our poor faculties. They are used in this exercise of an unusual kind, that highlights what love can do in this world when this is wanted by a higher will. This is not actually an easy exercise for anyone participating in this very special chorus.

"May we continue to provide what is expected of us; our hearts rely entirely on theirs, under the constant blessings bestowed on them."
