The Medium: Babuji, my heart is full of love and gratitude for all that you are doing for me. I do not express it enough, forgive me.

Don't you know that we read into the depths of hearts and that words, utterances, are superfluous, especially between us who are in osmosis? My son is happy; he is building the Mission with ardour. Doors are opening, as well as intersting prospects for its expansion.

Love carries him; the confidence we have placed in him is surpassing our expectations.

He is the great organizer: he sees, he plans, he organizes – he is prodigious. We love people of this calibre; on the human level, he is a born leader.

This dimension was necessary for him to build what currently exists and to prepare the future.

As regards Montpellier, let time do its work; it is not forgotten, as you tend to believe.

My son knows what he is doing; when the time comes, he will act. He cannot be everywhere at once, be confident.

You can all be thankful to have such a Master; it is your good fortune, in this incarnation, to meet him. He is a great figure.

He has all the qualities required to give you the best, on all levels.

See him as a builder, where he excels, and in all the sublime light of his being.
