Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

That my name does not appear at the bottom of these pages does not mean that they are unknown to me. On the contrary, their contents receive the attention of all of us here who are interested in the spiritual progress of mankind. The Sahaj Marg way contributes to this and it will do so in the future. It will keep influencing this pivotal period before the establishment, here below, of a system of life that is harmless to humans – unlike today's situation – and will allow humans to truly bloom spiritually. Work according to your possibilities, my dear sister. The love which my Master Ramakrishna inspired in you at some point in your life touches me. He was also Great, and he changed my life, as your Revered Spiritual Guide did for you much later. India is the chosen land of Great Souls; may they continue to work in this world, according to the divine will. You have our blessings."

Vivekananda

"All these Great Beings who preceded us in this world prepared the current times in terms of the faith and hope they instil in fervent hearts.

'This testimony honours our way and we are comforted once again in the roles assigned to us. This long series of incarnations through the ages of envoys representing the forces of good and acting on their behalf signifies the necessity to advance in this quest of the Infinite.

"We all are striving towards this as best we can. May we succeed beyond our hopes, and may the divine will be fulfilled, now and ever!"
