Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, March 7, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "O Babuji, my Beloved, my heart has been calling you for such a long time. You touched it from the outset and it gradually led to your son, my Master. It has been such a long way, over all these years of practice within this Mission so dear to my heart. It is to You, to Him, that I owe this. This unremitting work will continue beyond time, according to your instructions and according to graces which each one of you may wish to bestow on me."

Life follows its own course, my child; the subtle being carries on its own work wherever it may be. Yes, God is Spirit, as indicated in the book quoted earlier, hence the phrase 'world of the Spirit' used very often in our writings. God is not a person equipped with a form which then inspired man's form. We are very far from the beautiful images which humans imagine.

"Regardless, only one's faith and eagerness to advance are important in this matter. May this determination reside in our brothers and sisters who are moving towards what is essential."

Babuji

"The power of love propels our hearts towards the spheres of Inalterable Peace, far beyond the noises of this world. This world where numerous disturbances, the never-ending hatreds and all that characterises it, keep harming humans in their precarious balance. This refuge results from a profound quest; it is offered to the diligent seeker who understands where the true values are. Wonder develops within him. May all our brothers and sisters become fully aware of it and make use of what our way offers to them in this respect. The Master does his work; it is up to them to act accordingly. May all be blessed and strengthened."

S.E.