Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Friday, March 23, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "The receptacle of my heart receives your graces, they create wonder in it. Dazzled for a moment, my heart forgets its limits and lets itself be carried away to the shores of bliss."

My daughter, throughout this journey towards the magnificence of the Spirit, many obstacles arise. One by one, one has to go through them. Diverse in their nature, they keep putting man to the test. Being born is no easy thing; living entails constraints. Continual experiences mould man's personality.

"Why do I have all these problems? – some people say. The wheels of life are not devoid of deficiencies which seem unpleasant to one who has to undergo them. An incarnation has no other purpose, but this is not easy to understand. Opening oneself to the splendour of the divine life gives another dimension to this journey. Happy are the hearts that have understood it; they benefit from the opportunity granted to them to grow in this life."

Babuji

"Let us open our hearts to the immutable Splendour of the Spirit, in its full extent. Our goal will be reached when, being fascinated with each pulsing of the divine life, they celebrate a joyous ritual to the glory of this power. It is not in our power to measure its extent, not today or ever. Where does this source come from? What is its real scope and its power of action? At this stage, we should in no way feel concerned by such concepts. It's in human nature to question oneself."

"Being only love means complete surrender and detachment from the world of matter, with its continual questionings and its fanciful representations of what the Absolute Splendour must be. May all our aspirants be fully committed and advance towards It. That is the goal."
