Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Monday, September 3, 2007

Being the instrument of the Divine requires utmost availability. This is what you have been living over all these years and which has led to a wealth of messages. Their subtle essence is making its way into hearts, very favourably."

Babuji

The Medium: "Babuji, you are my light on this Earth, a light that does not dwindle. It floods my heart and is refreshing and pure, giving it the strength to serve you as much as it can."

"Pages are turned one by one – so is a life story. What matters is to conclude with a sense of accomplishment. Serving, completely surrendered, requires a certain nobility of soul. This is how it goes for the people involved in this long saga, whose related writings enrich the spiritual capital of our Mission. In this matter, you did not try to expose yourself. Your sense of humility has elegantly served our cause. Be blessed, my dear daughter."

Babuji

"How can one resist the call of His Divine heart? Ours awaits this moment of plenitude and they relish without further formality. Let us live this very moment; our future belongs to him.

"Let us be in utmost acceptance, thus our fervour manifests towards Him who enlightens our lives with this extraordinary love under his ceaseless blessings."
