Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, September 6, 2007

Dear soul, carried by this special vibration and propelled into the beauty of the Immutable, the divine heart of our Beloved is waiting for us. It opens up for us endless prospects where only love prevails, in its most sublimated expression. This long song, dedicated to His illustrious person, brought our hearts closer to one another. Let us be intoxicated with Him, as the moment is unique; these lines will keep the memory of it. So it must be, in accordance with the divine plans. All seems to have been said, and yet, praise keeps arising from our loving hearts. Let us not deprive them of a unique moment. Whatever is planned for these writings, only love – as expressed here – matters. It is the fruit of the Divine. Let us be immersed in Him, surrendered and confident in our becoming."

The Medium: "My Master, after a long process under your guidance, you have completely conquered my heart. What life has in store does not matter; it is fitting to surrender here. Isn't it the disciple's strength? You are a living example of it in relationship to the Divine Babuji Maharaj. Thus until the end, my heart will try to follow you, with utmost humility."

"May the whole Earth benefit from your divinely inspired songs. Such is our wish for humanity that is lost in its current wandering in this illusory world, so far away from realities, waiting for an overall and liberating regeneration. So be it!"

Babuji
