Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Sunday, September 23, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

If you were not 'strong-willed', would you have had the heart to write thousands of messages, some of which required real effort from you? We believe not.

"Surrendered to service, to the divine love, to the Master – thus are our most faithful servants. Is the Master himself not the living example of it? The precise driving force that makes him advance is love, in its highest expression. Being eternal, it will keep touching hearts; it is the very essence of life in all its forms. Let yourself be carried by it and love us wholeheartedly, peaceful and serene, while floating on a calm sea. That's the way it is for hearts completely captivated by this powerful energy. It cannot be evaluated and it is intensely lived when it subjugates the soul. Having this treasure is a priceless possession. Keep it safe and lavish it with all possible care, with fervour and gratitude, and you will make us happy. Will these messages be understood and felt very deeply from the bottom of the heart? We wish for that. May all their hearts be touched by grace and may they be carried away on the waves of bliss."
