Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Monday, September 24, 2007 – 4:00 p.m.

In the heart of mystical ecstasy, the soul becomes intoxicated and it adores in peace. The soul is a priceless jewel. It emanates from the Divine and thrives on Him. All is vain, except for His power; it animates everything down to the most subtle aspects of the being, and it plans out life in its smallest details.

"We all have originated from a great family whose members are renewed over time. They come to this Earth to perfect their spiritual evolution. They can be found within our Mission, where possibilities in this direction are offered. Motivation is key in this matter and each one is left with their free will, according to the strict laws of evolution. Each step is important, as it liberates the soul in its yearning to progress towards the goal. A teaching like this one touches the right chord by gradually raising the reader's vibration. Thus is the subtle being nourished; hence the value of regular reading on a daily basis. The soul, in its poignant reality, is thirsty for the Divine. It aspires to thrive on it and nothing can hold it back when its determination to rise is strong. The Master provides for it when the aspirant is ready."
