Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Tuesday, September 25, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

This collection of messages is 'the Ultimate Song', with which we favour our faithful readers. There will be many of them, even if the troubled and superficial life of this time suggests the opposite. Nothing is useless in this area; the divine laws are immutable, however they may appear, and make light of men's fickleness.

"Is there anything more beautiful than a soul awakening to the splendour of the Spirit? If humans knew, what wouldn't they give to complete the steps and enjoy this peace! The top to be reached is within them, intangible and sure, far from the eyes of humans and hasty judgements that are so often wrong. May new prospects unfold before all our brothers and sisters, preparing them for the heralded changes whereby the rules [prevailing] in this world will be somewhat different. It is among our prerogatives to sensitise people to these inevitable changes.

"The new era must position itself as such. Stagnation is not within our duties. At the dawn of new times, our teachings must take account of this and comply with the spirit that governs them. Humans will have a lot to do; they will have to adapt to new and disconcerting situations. Faith will be their supreme refuge; they will be helped accordingly. Our way provides for this."
