Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, October 10, 2007 – 4:00 p.m.

Keep heart, don't give up. Go beyond your human condition in these moments when our hearts are united in search of the Ultimate Beauty, the source of their inspiration. The appeal is becoming more urgent; it carries us onto the shores of the sacred where, according to our wishes, the ritual is accomplished. A stage has been reached; it is humanly indefinable. Its purpose is a truer vibratory harmony between us, thus refining the perception in these contacts and fostering communication. Do not put up any resistance to this work; it is our Beloved's wish. What can we refuse Him, He who is the centre point of our thoughts and our lives? This is how they develop: it all starts and ends with him, under his constant and reassuring inspiration. Thanks to this inspiration, we can put the vagaries of everyday life into better proportion. The continual movement of life ends up unsettling the strongest human being. Only the intervention of the divine power of the Immutable makes it possible, in many circumstances, to face the illusory and uncertain nature of the future.

"You have reached a new dimension of consciousness. Your perception of phenomena is enlarging and puts us in unison whenever necessary.

"Manage this new stage as best you can; it corresponds to the wishes of our Divine Guide. What wouldn't he do to put us in tune, a little more each day?

"We are surrendered to him, more than ever – thus all is well."

"You will soon perceive the effects of this work. Your Master is applying himself to that as well as possible. This adjustment corresponds to a new stage, one that fosters your progress as well as the work we expect of you. All is not finished as you believe; you have yet to write another beautiful page of this history. Rejoice, my daughter, and love us infinitely."
