Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, December 5, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

Your wish to offer the book of messages to this ashram is not incongruous. Wait until you know the outcome of this matter; it is not 'closed without further action'. What does not seem useful today may prove necessary tomorrow. The Mission has seen worse. Remember the detractors, specifically concerning the building of this Mission centre where you wish this precious collection, dear to our heart, to be stored? Time makes events take on their full meaning; it has always been like that since the origin of creation.

"Therefore, be serene. We already told you that we urge you to act as per our wishes. That's all."
