Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Saturday, December 15, 2007 – 10:00 a.m.

Take pleasure in this energy that is so special and which delights your heart. My daughter, this moment of grace is akin to jubilation. How could you neglect it when your heart is intensely eager for it? A soul's mystical union with the higher being of its Master is the ultimate encounter glorifying the divine omnipotence. A meeting at the human level is desirable, but nothing can hinder this [inner] process once it has started. The disciple must advance with total confidence; he has no control over the situation. Complete surrender must crown this undertaking, which will relieve him of doubts inherent in human nature. With time, the process accelerates and helps to refine and deepen the work resulting from this ascent that unifies the heart of the disciple to that of his Master."
