Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Thursday, February 21, 2008 – 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried by love, the only real good in this life. We have said it so many times already, but no matter; that which does matter is only this eternal truth which happy hearts grasp. They thrive on this substance, on its strength and its power of purification, idealising a being receptive to its divine plans. May they, in ever-increasing numbers, follow us in this way of love, which the world of men desperately needs! Happy are those who appreciate these messages, having thus gone beyond human limitations. Obscurantism is inherent in current times, associated with a lack of openness to a reality beyond the reach of a certain number of individuals. Poor humanity, trapped in the fetters of samskaras, in this current era of opacity where there are no prospects of an elsewhere where the Spirit prevails over matter.

"Rejecting these messages would be tantamount to offending the Masters of the past, but also being disrespectful to the present Master in his decisions and his wish to share a special teaching with all our brother and sister abhyasis.

"May they all open up to the higher reality and progress as per our expectations."
