Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fifth Revelation

Wednesday, May 14, 2008 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "You are in my heart, like a jewel adorned with [the radiance of] a thousand fires. It succumbs to your force of attraction, letting itself be carried according to your goodwill. The way of love is its reference, and you promote it with benevolence. Your grand designs guide my life, which feeds on them every day with delight."

My daughter, drink from the divine cup; it bestows grace on your soul. Nothing better than this can happen to it in this lifetime.
"Be strengthened and blessed."
