Friday, July 11, 2008 – 4:00 p.m.

The Medium: "My Master, your visit has filled my heart with great happiness; thus it thanks you every day in these contacts, since Beloved Babuji and you are henceforth One in it.

"Once again, the celebration of your birthday will leave it sad to be so far from you, though happy at the same time to know you are very much cared for and revered by so many abhyasis from various countries.

"There will also be beautiful and great souls, which in their own way will be with you on this day that is so special, and will benefit from these unique moments where the Spirit will manifest itself in all its Splendour."

Yes, I will be by your side, very humbly, while being thankful for the graces that were bestowed on me to have given birth to a being like you, my dearly beloved son. In the name of all those who love you and would like to show it to you, receive this celestial manna in your heart, in the way we see it showering upon you. A very happy birthday to you. Make sure you spare yourself, and be fully happy, my blessed son and my Master, with all my love."

Janaki

The Medium [a personal note from the medium to the Master]: "My Master, allow me – when this great day has come and in the wake of all these noble souls – to join my voice with theirs to wish you a happy birthday. Very respectfully yours."