Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fifth Revelation

Friday, August 1, 2008 – 10:00 a.m.

You are precious to our hearts. Your frailty moves us, and your steadfastness in loving us and serving us keeps surprising us.

This coming together of my son and you makes us very happy;it was highly essential and it serves our plans related to the Mission.

"The divine intentions are unfathomable. This being well established, surrendering to the higher will is a sign of wisdom. You should always advance more and more in this spirit, my daughter. You live a cloistered life. As your Master has emphasised, this situation that is so heavy for you may have at least the advantage of protecting you, to a certain extent, from the harmful effects of life outside. All has its raison d' être, including these ceaseless repetitions; they better allow for putting things in context."
