Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, March 7, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

May each day in your life be an act of faith, carried by divine love. Thus your heart is in jubilation; serving us and loving us is enough for your happiness. You have understood the main thing, my daughter, in this world where all is vain except the quest of the spirit. Your sufferings and your isolation, far from all that you love in nature, have their raison d' être. Your isolation contributes to this flowering of messages, which the world will remember and, one can even say, the worlds, since they go far beyond Earthly limits to help other souls. This is an aspect to consider; it is an established fact. This is how it is for anything divinely inspired.

Babuji