Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, March 20, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

These short messages are not insignificant. They must be kept, no matter how many have already been noted down. Time will give you the reassurance of all that we tell you – did you imagine that they would be published in so great a number?

We repeat yet again: 'Doesn't all have its raison d'être!' Here, particularly.

Continue to fight, my daughter, and to serve us. Be blessed.
