Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 18, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Never trust the comments of anyone concerning my son and his health condition, or whether he is sad or happy. Happy or not, that has no bearing on the effectiveness of his work. He is active twenty-four hours a day.

Don't constantly dwell on appearances. This or that is said; some of you create screenplays worthy of Hollywood.

His action goes beyond human perceptions. He does not always get the expected results, and not as quickly as he would like, but he can recognize the efforts of all abhyasis.

Often, he must react and rectify the way some people act, for the good of all; otherwise where would the Mission go, if he spent his time only praising and blessing you.

He wants nothing but good for all of you and he must act the way he does.

As was said in a previous message: he is satisfied with the results obtained in Europe, particularly over the last months.

Everyone is moving; the flowering looks promising.

Your Master gives so much of himself, beyond your imagination.

It is normal that he goes through moments of tiredness and disillusion; certain beings are so disappointing.

In spite of everything, he moves on and does his work, which is gigantic.

He acts for the entirety of those who are sincere and active and who follow him with love.

Always see only the positive sides of all the members, and of the overall result of his action.

In spite of the inevitable weaknesses of some people, he follows you all with love.

Never let yourselves be destabilized by comments concerning my son's moods. They are perhaps only the reflection of those who spread them.
