Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, March 27, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

Be happy, your life is not ordinary. Your path is hard, but so very productive. Divine laws punctuate it and give it this special feature, together with uncommon gifts. To be of service in this way implies very strict obligations. They are agreeable to you and you accept them with gratitude and love; thus is the best achieved.

All is well.
