Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, June 6, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

The future impact of these messages cannot be imagined today; we have already said it, but this fact is worth emphasising once again. They strike certain beings more deeply than others, depending on their receptiveness and their spiritual condition. May my son be praised for having shown the courage to open a way towards the world of the Spirit – one that is not yet well understood at this stage of evolution here below. Thus is the way widening within a spiritual movement like ours – one that is firmly grounded on higher reality. That was bound to happen; time is pressing. A being of his stature can take this liberty; such is part of his mandate and his prerogative. He is up to the mark, beyond our hopes.

Our love surrounds him. We express it to him in our own way, and this is an example.

Blessed be this son, so dear to our hearts.
