Birthday of Parthasarathi Maharaj

My dear Parthasarathi,

Years pass, and in some way they bring you closer to us – it is in the nature of things – but you still have a lot to do in this world.

Do you know how much we love you? You cannot. Our very dear Janaki once told you in a message that 'legions of angels accompany you.' It is true. Not only angels, but the 'Chorus' of united Masters. They carry you on a way wreathed with graces, but also with trials, as is the case for any human being; it is the way it goes in this material world where there is a reason for everything. This fact escapes the majority of human beings. Only great sages have an inkling of the truth, without however being able to entirely grasp it. That does not matter; they enlighten humanity with their knowledge, with their understanding of things at all levels. You are one of the Chosen, the Great Beings selected to accomplish an important mission meant to contribute to the elevation of humanity.

May the strength of our love always lift you up higher and higher and confer on you the title of 'Very Great' according to our dearest wishes for you – the chosen and beloved son to whom we send our best and most sincere wishes for a happy birthday.

You have all our attention and love; how could we not repeat it time and again on this day of grace for your heart! Let it all be for the best.

Babuji
