(After the morning meditation, Patrick tells me: "Master will be expecting you at 4:00 p.m.", which is what Babuji told me the day before.

4:00 p.m.: discussion with Master, then he offers me a sitting. He does not understand why my preceptor needs his approval to give me a sitting every week.

At 6:00 p.m. I abandon the idea of going to the meditation hall, I decide to stay in the dining room and meditate there.)

(5:50 p.m.: Babuji's message for Master.)

In the near future, you will have to reorganise the Mission. Many things will change in the world, and peoples will confront each other. India will have a role to play in this great upheaval. Spirituality will save humanity.

Don't worry, the forces of evil will be defeated. Pray for that at the dawn of this new year. Be blessed, my Beloved son.
