Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, September 11, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

My very dear son,
We are saddened to see you disheartened in the face of human stupidity; it is so extensive, and unfortunately, our way is not spared. Be that as it may, your aura is growing, and your action is sublime. We admire it, you can be sure, and we are happy to see the Sahaj Marg Mission expanding, slowly but surely. We accompany you on this hard path. No great person is spared. Their actions entail unspeakable difficulties; thus are the divine laws. Your life is not devoid of joys. They compensate – however little – for this heavy burden. They add worth to a well-defined and invaluable action for humanity in a cycle which is trying for everyone. We accompany you constantly, you know this, but you still have to confront yourself, your worries, human distress, and all sorts of difficulties which people must face. A permanent state of grace will not come tomorrow; the task is huge and many divinised lives will have to be lived here below before peace and harmony are established for good. As servants of divine power, we can only act as best we can and always in view of this final apotheosis for which we all long. We support your action on all levels; be at peace and blessed beyond words.
