Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, December 16, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.

This rendezvous of the heart is important for us too. You are our best and most faithful intermediary in a world that is troubled in every way. Your heart is a haven of peace and love. You suffer from the isolation in which you have been kept for a very long time by your health condition, but you are thus protected to some extent from the pervading negativity. Your availability and receptiveness are greater than anyone else's. After all these many years, we remain your priority.

Your faithful brown-headed children also work in your wake, as they understood early on the importance of these writings. The mission of this boy was to be in the right place to seize this opportunity. They complement each other in terms of their qualities, and their role has just started to come out into the open. Blessed are those who follow you with confidence and provide you their support at all levels.

Remain confident about the issue that worries you; we are doing our utmost to help you. Your dear Indian son also provides assistance; this boy is full of love.

Blessings to all.
