Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, January 13, 2010 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium:
O Babuji, my wellspring and first contact of the day, you open the way to your son, this blessed Great Being who provides me with the second true joy of the day.

Thus do the hours pass by, with the force generated by the very dear presence of the two of you.

Forgive me for opening my heart like this, and yet, all it is doing is repeating that which has been said for a long time. This kind of emotion is the prelude to a great happiness of the soul.

The two of you are only as One in my soul, and your respective powers lead it into a state beyond human reasoning, a kind of delight which belongs to it alone – so it seems.

Thus are the mysteries connecting us to the divine forces. They develop in each one of us a state conducive to a deep and irreversible call of the soul. Beyond words there exist these unique moments from which my heart benefits, in a state of surrender and fervour.

You have understood it all, my child. You are making progress in the perception of our respective states. At the highest level of consciousness, we are only as One, hence a greatly increased creative force in the service of a cause which marks the beginning of a new era – one of open-mindedness capable of enlightening humans on their past limitations with regard to their evolution.

The obscurantism and bondage generated with respect to certain ideas, remain powerful for multiple reasons: authority, subjugation, power in all its manifestations.

Humans too often move away from imposed limits. One day, everything radically changes and reverts to a balance corresponding to the divine laws, with their utmost integrity. It is in the nature of things. Engulfed civilisations went through and paid for their excesses of all sorts. That is the way it goes.
