Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, January 30, 2010 – 10:00 a.m.

We already expressed ourselves on this issue. You are our medium; you were chosen and have been appreciated for a long time. The impressive quantity of messages received over so many years testifies – if need be – to your extraordinary ability to surrender in order to serve us. Reality extends beyond human qualities. You are guided by love which gives you not only the strength to advance in spite of your ailing condition, but also this very special inner state which enables us all to freely access your heart – this exemplary servant of your spirit. We do not wish to have other scribes; you meet all our expectations. Let us put it that way so that your ego will not feel flattered. You are doing what you came on the Earth to do. We said it already: more than a medium, you are an envoy of God. It will take time for all that you are writing, including the contents of these notebooks, to be known in the Mission, nevertheless this treasure is priceless.

Would this dear sister abhyasi find the answer she expects if she reads this? We do not underestimate the gift she says she has; but she is not meant to be our medium in this life. Everyone has their own role in the Mission; hers lies elsewhere. There are many ways of serving. This is true for all our brother and sister abhyasis.

We value their honesty and their faithfulness towards us. All are blessed for what they represent within our way; they are its living force.

That is the way it goes.
